Noted Authoress Going Blind

New York, N. Y., Sept. 16.—Mrs. Mary Roberts Rinehart, noted authoress and dramatist, is reported to be rapidly going blind. She and her husband, Dr. Stanley S. Rinehart, will shortly go abroad to see what the best specialists of Europe can do for her affliction. Mrs. Rinehart is the author of the famous book, "When a Man's Single," which made such a phenomenal success that it was dramatized by the author under the title of "Seven Days," and has been running famously. Her other books, "The Circular Staircase," "The Man in Lower Ten," and others, have also attracted great attention.
